Achievement Academy held its Pigeon Pull and Evening Round-Up

LAKELAND, FL (January 20, 2011) The Achievement Academy held its 5th Annual Pigeon Pull and Evening Round-Up at the home of Marty and Angela Higgenbotham in Lakeland. The four man flurry skeet shoot was held from 2:00-5:00 p.m. with Caudill Heating and Air Conditioning being the winning team. A special thank you to Adam Airth for cooking a pig and to Frank and Ilse Buzzanca, Todd Christian, Nick Nicholas, Rhonda Stutts, Terry Stutts, Bill and Martha Tinsley for making various wild game appetizers. The evening party was from 6:00-10:30 p.m. where guests enjoyed cocktails, dinner by Outback Steakhouse, live and silent auction and entertainment by the Williams Road band while showing community support for the Achievement Academy. This year's Beretta Sponsor was Q & Q Inc./The Kontny Family! The event was an overwhelming success that raised $75,000 and was made possible because of the generosity of Marty and Angela Higgenbotham.

This is one of Achievement Academy's fastest growing events. Tony Turbeville, board member, chaired this event with Adam Airth, board member. Committee

Members were David Caudill, Casey Compton, Gilit Kontny, Eric Larson, Michael Micallef and Rick Tillis.

The Achievement Academy is a Pre-Kindergarten Charter School providing education and therapy services to children with developmental delays/disabilities in Polk County. The Achievement Academy assists children through age six and their families through education, support, resources and advocacy at each of its three locations - Lakeland, Bartow and Winter Haven.
